

Daniel and the Lions' Den

I can keep praying and trust God.

This book belongs to: _____

Daniel arrives in Persia

Colour Daniel, the sunrise, and the city where he served faithfully.

AFTER YOU COLOUR

Draw one way you can be helpful today.

Daniel keeps praying

Colour Daniel praying beside his open window.

AFTER YOU COLOUR

Draw or write one thing you want to tell God.

God sends an angel

Colour Daniel, the angel, and the peaceful lions inside the den.

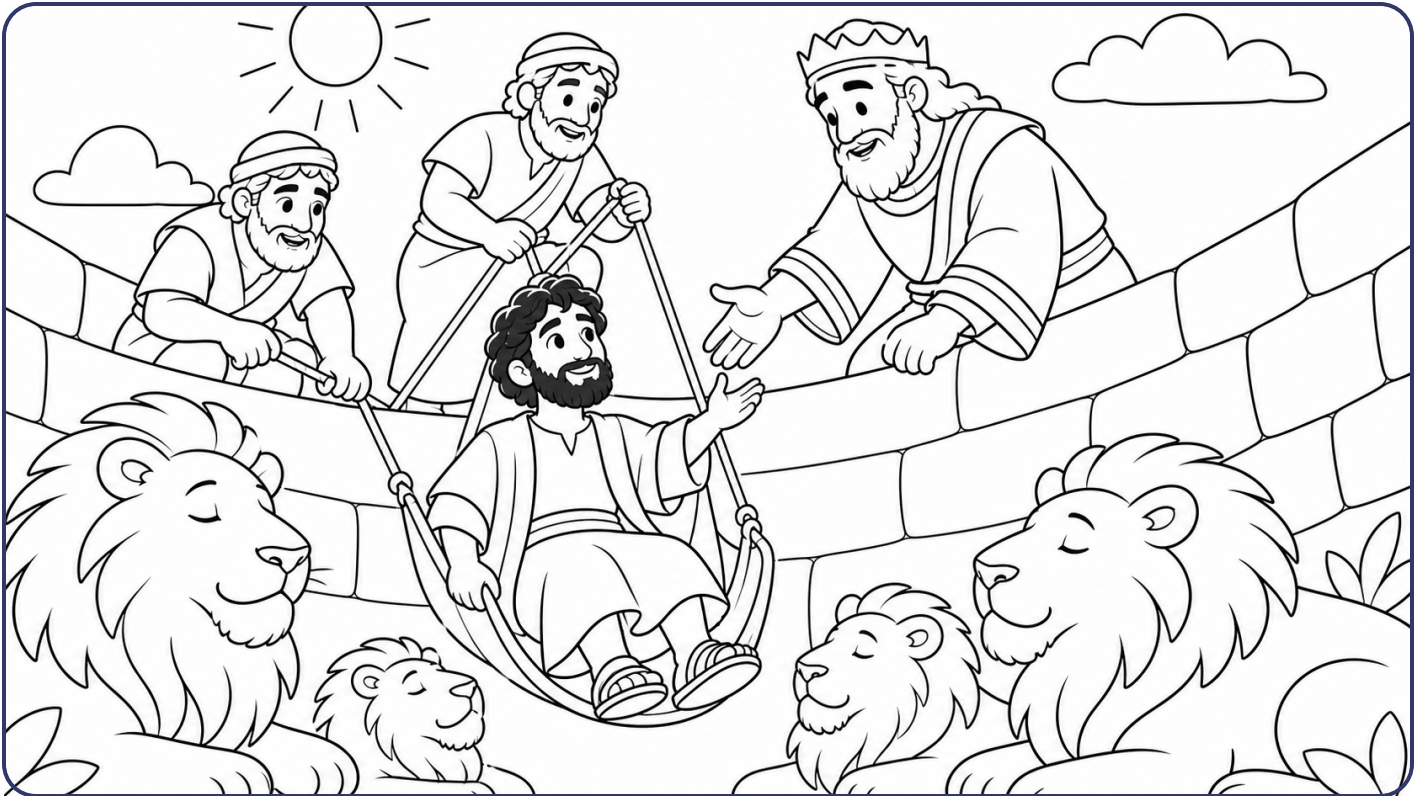

AFTER YOU COLOUR

Circle the lion that looks most peaceful to you.

Daniel is rescued

Colour Daniel being lifted safely from the lions' den.

AFTER YOU COLOUR

Draw a happy sunrise above the den.

Daniel trusted God

Colour Daniel, the peaceful lion, and the night sky.

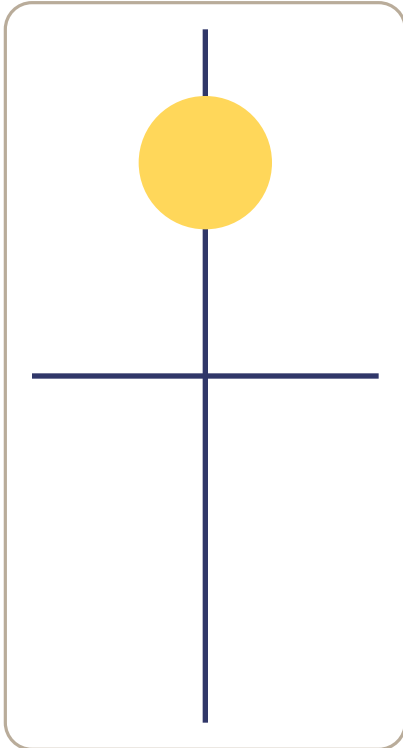

AFTER YOU COLOUR

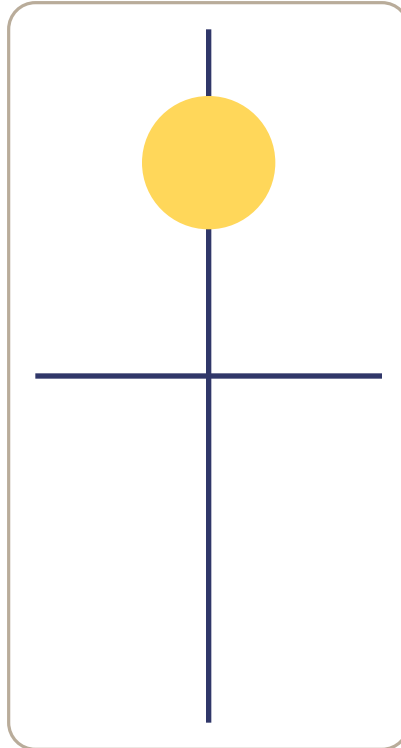

Draw one small prayer: a thank-you, a worry, or a brave next step.

Daniel prayed three times

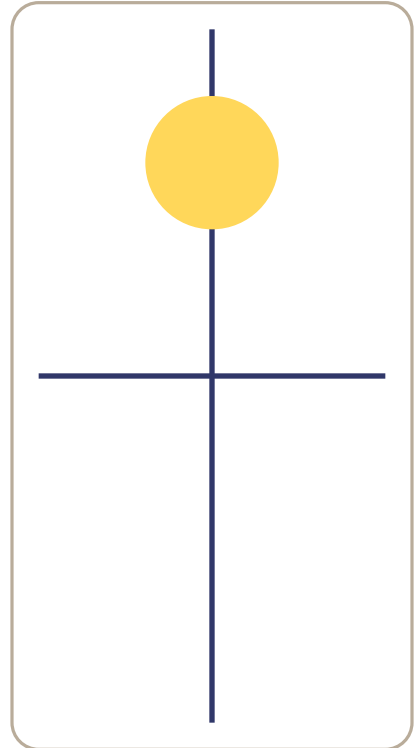

Write 1, 2, and 3 in the windows. Draw one thing you can thank God for in each window.

1

2

3

Prayer was already Daniel's habit before trouble came. What small time of day could help you remember to pray?

STORY ORDER

What happened first?

Write the numbers 1 to 5 in the boxes to put the story in order.

☐

God kept the lions from hurting Daniel.

☐

Daniel served King Darius faithfully.

☐

The king celebrated and honored Daniel's God.

☐

Jealous officials made an unfair law.

☐

Daniel kept praying to God.

THINK ABOUT IT

What did Daniel keep doing even when the law was frightening?

MEMORY VERSE

He trusted in his God

Daniel 6:23

TRACE THE WORDS

HE TRUSTED IN HIS GOD

HE TRUSTED IN HIS GOD

HE TRUSTED IN HIS GOD

Say it four ways

1

normally

2

whisper

3

brave voice

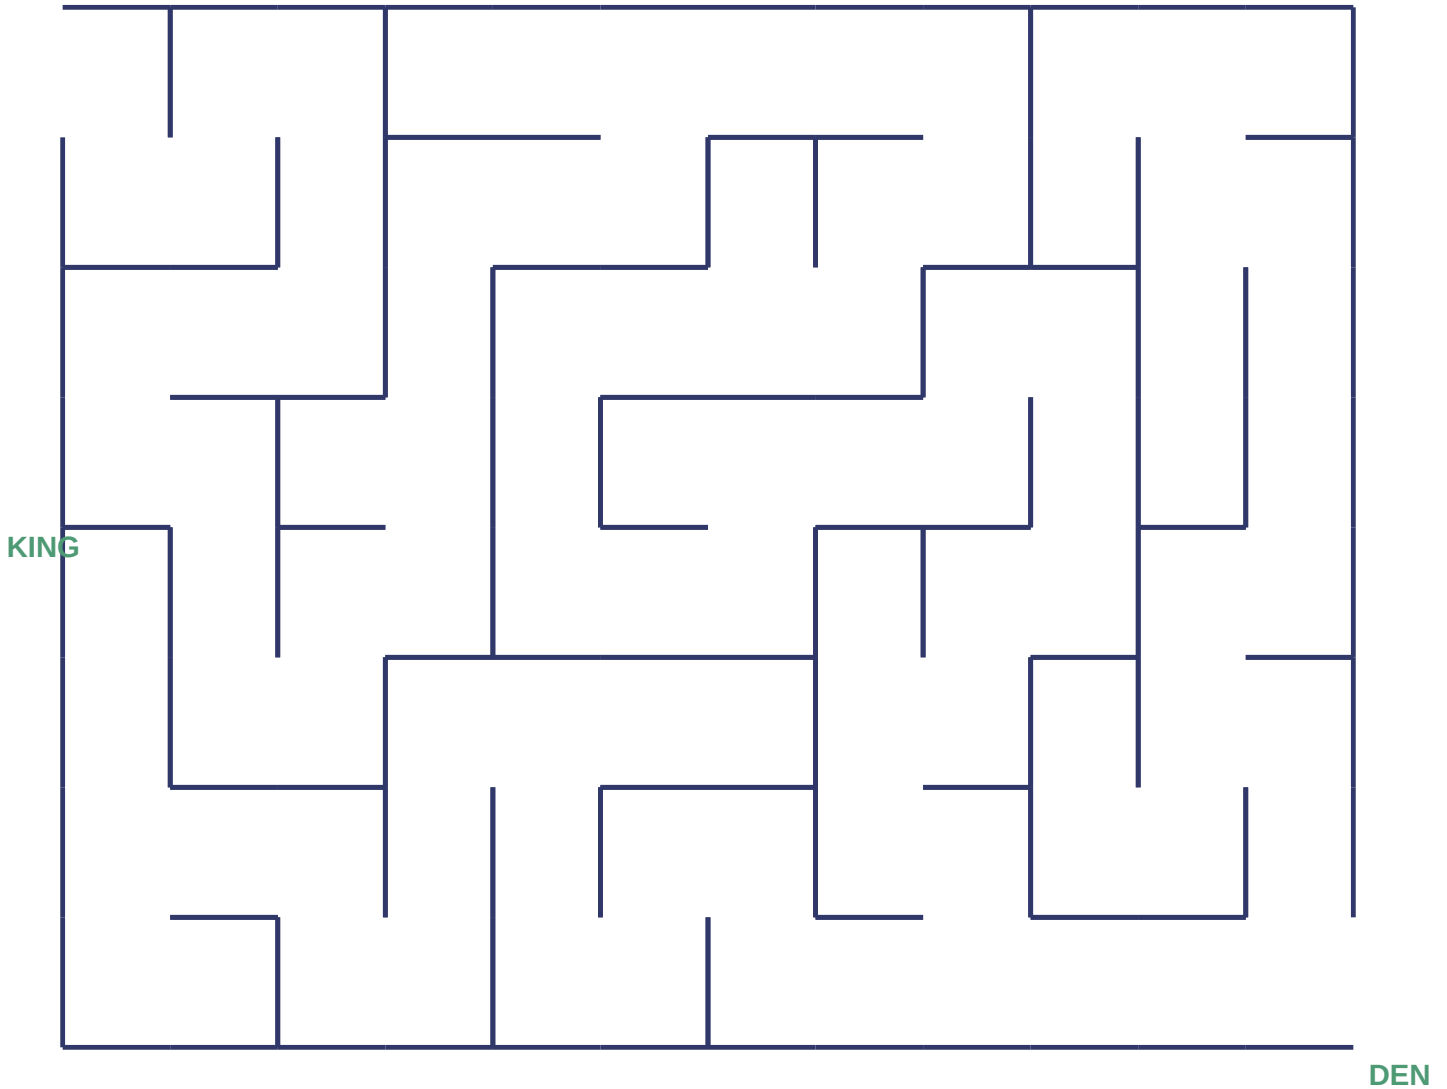

4

hand over heart

MAZE

Help the king reach the den

Find a path from King Darius to Daniel at sunrise.

The king hurried to the den because he cared about Daniel. How can you show care to someone today?

DRAW AND PRAY

A worry I can bring to God

Draw or write about something that feels frightening. You may keep it private.

A large rectangular box with a dashed inner border, intended for drawing or writing. The box is empty and occupies the central portion of the page.

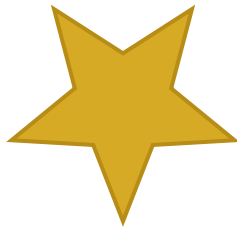

THINK AND TALK

- What helped Daniel stay brave?
- What did the king do because he cared?
- What is one right next step you can take?

Courageous Prayer Certificate

This certificate celebrates for learning to keep praying and trust God.

HE TRUSTED IN HIS GOD

Daniel 6:23

TEACHER OR PARENT

DATE